

FOOD SAFETY AND INSPECTION SERVICE
OFFICE OF POLICY,

The function of the Office of Policy, Program Development and Evaluation (OPPDE) is to develop and recommend all domestic and international policy for the Agency; develop and review product, process, and technology performance standards; review labeling, and compounds used by industry; provide statistical support for the Agency; develop and evaluate programs, inspection methods, systems, and techniques; and provide leadership in identifying food safety concerns and solutions associated with animal production activities.